

NGRI–AHI Indian National Hydrology Lecture Award

The CSIR-National Geophysical Research Institute and Association of Hydrologists of India (AHI) jointly invite nominations for the Award of 'NGRI-AHI Indian National Hydrology Lecture Award' for the year-2012.

Guidelines for nominations

1. The Lecture Award will be awarded annually to an eminent national/international hydrologist who has made outstanding contributions to Hydrology with a special focus on India.
2. The contributions should have significant national and international impact.
3. Candidates who have made significant contributions in academic and R&D lines with a balanced approach to both theoretical and field research will have an added advantage.
4. The nominations can be made by Heads of institutions, organizations and reputed scientists.
5. The award will carry a cash prize of Rs 50,000 and a brief citation.
6. The Awardee will be requested to deliver a lecture at a scientific meeting organized by CSIR-NGRI/AHI in India
7. Wherever necessary, the Award winner will be provided travel expenses and local hospitality limiting such expenditure up to a maximum of Rs 20,000.
8. The nominations containing the details of academic profile, research publications, awards and honours, significant contributions, communication details of the nominee supported by pertinent documents as attachment may be mailed on or before 31 December 2012 to

The Director

CSIR-National Geophysical Research Institute
Uppal Road
Hyderabad 500 007
e-mail: director@ngri.res.in under copy to:

The Secretary

Association of Hydrologists of India (AHI)
Dept. of Geophysics
Andhra University
Visakhapatnam 530 003
e-mail: ahivizag@gmail.com

Director
CSIR-National Geophysical Research Institute

President
Association of Hydrologists of India