- Traditional Knowledge Digital Library (TKDL)
- Operations Management and Project Finance & Accounting (OMPFA)

Council of Scientific & Industrial Research (CSIR), established in 1942, is an autonomous Society with the Prime Minister of India as its President. An ensemble of 37 state-of-the-art National Laboratories/Institutes, 6 Units and 38 Centres, CSIR today is amongst the foremost and largest publicly funded scientific and industrial research organisations in the world. CSIR delivers cutting-edge science on one hand and state-of-the-art technology on the other. The expertise and experience of CSIR is embodied in its more than 4600 scientists and 8000 technical support personnel apart from about 6000 JRF/SRF/RA and project staff. Over the years, CSIR has played a pivotal role in the advancement of S&T, covering diverse domains. CSIR has spawned many organisations, many disciplines and most importantly has served as a nursery and training ground for most of India's distinguished scientists and technologists. CSIR has ushered India into the knowledge economy, creating and nurturing talent in science, innovation and technology.

CSIR has endeavored to be at the forefront of R&D in diverse areas. In doing so, it has made concerted efforts to put in place innovative strategies and mechanisms for management of R&D.

Located in New Delhi, CSIR, comprises diverse S&T, administrative and finance divisions which help in functioning of its constituent laboratories, units and centres as per the mission in place.

CSIR now offers positions for enthusiastic technical professionals with an ability to take up responsibility to help senior CSIR professionals at its headquarters to manage and execute R&D, as part of the following positions:
