TDU-AMWAY NUTRILITE

Sponsored Symposium on 'Traditional Knowledge Inspired Nutraceuticals'

6 March 2018

The Institute of Trans-Disciplinary Health Sciences and Technology (TDU), Bengaluru and Amway-Nutriline, are jointly organizing a one-day Symposium on 'Traditional Knowledge Inspired Nutraceuticals'. The symposium will highlight the strategy for development of traditional knowledge inspired nutraceuticals by translating traditional wisdom into modern interventions. This will also broaden the contemporary understanding of health and wellness by introducing traditional knowledge's innate concepts. The symposium aims to bring together students, researchers, practitioners and policy makers to understand current knowledge and gaps and how these lacunae can be addressed.

Soft copy of the abstract with on-line registration should be done on or before 28 February 2018.
