

A scene from a previous workshop

Current Science is organizing a training workshop on science writing in Thiruchirappalli, Tamil Nadu for the benefit of scientists, researchers and science faculty. Bharathidasan University will be hosting this eight-day workshop from 10 to 17 March 2020.

The workshop aims to enhance the capacity of scientists and researchers to write different types of scientific articles, reviews, grant applications and project reports.

Indian citizens with a Ph.D. degree in any branch of science or at least two scientific papers in peer-reviewed journals may apply. Applications are invited from interested faculty in Indian universities and scientists in Indian research institutes.

To facilitate skill building, the intensive eight-day workshop will be complemented by extensive virtual online workshop, feedback and mentoring. Selected participants are expected to take active part in the online interactions.

Only 14 persons will be selected for the workshop to allow group discussions, interpersonal interactions and hands-on training. Arrangements will be made for the boarding and lodging of the selected participants.

Registration fee

Rs 10,000 (to be paid on selection) includes accommodation, food and workshop expenses.
