

Nomination for 2021 AVRA Young Scientist Award

A V Rama Rao Research Foundation invites nominations for Annual Young Scientist Award from the applicants for '2021 AVRA Young Scientist Award' in the area of Organic Chemistry relevant to health sector.

Eligibility: The candidate must be working as a full-time scientist/faculty in Government organization and should be below the age of 40 years as on 1 April 2021.

Required documents:

- Resume of the candidate
- Academic Track Record
- Nomination letter from the concerned Head of the University/Institute

Nominations can be sent by e-mail and hardcopy to the following address on or before 21 March 2022

Results will be announced on 2 April 2022

Presentation of award on 11 May 2022

Dr V. M. Tiwari, Director, CSIR-Indian Institute of Chemical Technology, Tarnaka, Hyderabad 500 007, TS, e-mail: director@iict.res.in; dasari@iict.res.in Direct nominations from students and supervisors will not be considered for this award.

Final selection: The Selection Committee will make final selection from the pool of nominations received from research institutions across India.

Awards: The Award money of Rs 50,000 would be distributed equally among the maximum of two selected candidates. The awardees shall deliver the award lecture on the day of Award ceremony.

Date and award venue: 11 May 2022, CSIR-IICT