Monsanto

We’re redefining the way the world looks at life sciences.

Monsanto India is part of Monsanto USA, is a Fortune 500 Global Life Sciences Corporation in the business of Agriculture, Biotechnology, Food and Fibre Production, Pharmaceuticals and New Technology Development, currently generating revenues in excess of US$6 billion per year.

Our life sciences organization is expanding research and development efforts in India with the commitment to develop new and exciting biotechnology products for Indian agriculture. Our R&D Centre, located in Bangalore, India has the following position available for experienced scientists in Crop Transformation.

Crop Transformation/Sugarcane

The successful candidate will have the primary responsibility for generating transgenic Sugarcane lines expressing agronomically useful genes and work very closely with the Transformation and Molecular Biology groups as well as the Global Sugarcane Team in the development of novel Sugarcane varieties.

The candidates should have a Ph.D. degree in appropriate discipline and 2–5 years of experience in transformation and regeneration of monocot plants. Expertise in plant tissue culture, excellent communication skills and the ability to work in a team environment are critical. A familiarity with plant molecular biology and Sugarcane breeding will be highly desirable.

Monsanto provides a very challenging, fast paced work environment where self starters can have extremely satisfying career growth. We invest heavily in management training and overall people development.

Terms of employment will be only the best, with significant opportunity for performance-related bonuses. The position above will be provided with a fully maintained air-conditioned company car in addition to other benefits.

Monsanto is an equal opportunity employer.

Interested candidates may courier their resumes within 7 days with the position superscribed on the envelope to Ernest Louis, Monsanto R&D Centre, CSIC Complex, IISc Campus, Bangalore 560 012. Telefax: 080-3444152.