

The Indian Science Congress Association Young Scientists Award Programme 2001–2002

To encourage Young Scientists, The Indian Science Congress Association under the above programme introduced a number of awards in January 1981. Each award carries a cash amount of Rs 5,000/- and a certificate of merit.

1. Only members (ordinary) and Life members who have paid their subscriptions on or before 31 August 2001 are eligible to apply for the ISCA Young Scientists Award Programme. The upper age limit of the candidates for the award is 32 years as reckoned on 31 December 2000 (only those born on or after 1 January 1969 are eligible).
2. Three copies of Biodata, including full name and address along with the date of birth (duly supported by attested copy of the certificate), membership status and number, research experience (in case of joint authorship, the candidate has to be acknowledged by the author(s) in terms of a certificate as having made the major contribution) and certification that the work has been carried out in India and has not been submitted for any award, should be appended to the complete paper.
3. Three copies of the full paper along with 3 copies of abstracts in about 300 words shall have to reach the office of the General Secretary (Hqrs.) on or before 31 August 2001. At the top of each copy of the paper and its abstract, the name of the Section shall have to be indicated clearly.
4. A member could present only 1 paper in only 1 Section and not a second paper with the same or any other contents in any other Sections, for the year under considerations for competing in the ISCA Young Scientists Award Programme.
5. Full paper will be assessed for their content and at most 6 Young Scientists in each section will be invited to make oral presentation of their papers during the Science Congress Session, who will be provided with admissible travelling and daily allowances by the ISCA.
6. The Final selection for the Awards will be done by a duly constituted committee and the awards will be given by the General President at Valedictory Session of the 89th Indian Science Congress to be held at Lucknow from 3 to 7 January 2002.
7. All correspondences should be made to:
