Ashoka Trust for Research in Ecology and the Environment (ATREE)
Bangalore Delhi Bagdogra Guwahati

ATREE, a young and dynamic organization, dedicated to the conservation of country's natural heritage invites applications from motivated and highly qualified individuals for appointment to the following positions:

a. Fellow – Policy Analysis/Social Sciences
Applicants should have a Ph.D. in Social Sciences/Anthropology/Political Science/Economics/NRM from a reputed University. Masters qualification holders with exceptional publication record can also be considered. Additionally the applicants should have a good understanding of policy, legal and governance issues associated with conservation and management of biological resources. Two of the three positions are endowed. Selected candidates will be based at Bangalore (1), Delhi (1) and Bagdogra (1).

b. Fellow – Geographical Information Systems/Eco-Informatics
Applicants should have a Ph.D. in Geography/Biology with 2 years experience in remote sensing/statistics/spatial analysis. Special preference will be given to candidates with demonstrated skills in conservation planning, ecological databases, biodiversity mapping. Selected applicant will be based at Bangalore. Additional positions may be available at Bagdogra and Guwahati.

A Fellow level position at ATREE is equivalent to an Assistant Professor in Indian Universities. Salaries are at par with those for equivalent positions at the top notch Universities.

c. Program Officer – Conservation and Livelihoods
Applicants must have a Master's degree in any relevant discipline with at least 2 years experience in natural resource and conservation-related programs. He or she will be responsible for all written communication Conservation and Livelihoods program at ATREE. S/he will assist the Program Head in developing proposals, writing reports, and also in project coordination. S/he must have excellent oral and written skills in English. The selected applicant will be based at Bangalore.

d. Executive Assistant to Regional Director, ATREE-Delhi
The selected candidate shall assist Regional Director, New Delhi in general office management responsibilities. S/he will also be involved in managerial responsibilities related to Delhi based programs and general institutional development initiatives. Applicants must have excellent written and oral communication skills in English. A management qualification and/or relevant experience in an organization of repute will be of considerable advantage.

ATREE offers competitive compensation and a work environment that encourages and rewards both team-work and individual excellence. Women candidates will be given a special consideration.

Applicants should write to the address below, enclosing their CVs, names of three references, and a letter describing their professional goals over the next 4–5 years and how these goals fit with ATREE’s mission.
Deadline for application: 15 November 2004 or until suitable candidates are found. For more information on ATREE please visit us at www.atree.org

The Director, ATREE, 659, 5th A Main Road, Hebbal, Bangalore 560 024
Phone: 80-23533942, 23530069; Fax: 80-23530070; Email: director@atree.org or info@atree.org