Bhabha Atomic Research Centre Training School

DAE offers challenging career and invites applications from:

- Engineering Graduates and Science Post-Graduates in Nuclear Science & Technology
- Operation & Maintenance of Nuclear Power Plants and other Industrial Facilities

Selected applicants will undergo training in OCES-2005/2006. On successful completion, they will be appointed as Scientific Officers in any of the DAE Units.

Qualifying Degree and Disciplines:
- BE in Mechanical, Chemical, Metallurgy, Civil, Electrical, Electronics, Computer, Instrumentation & Control, Physics, Chemistry, and Bio-Sciences
- MSc in Physics, Electronics, Chemistry, Bio-Sciences

The Two Training Scheme Options are:
- DAE-2005: One-Year Orientation Course for Engineering Graduates & Science Post-Graduates starting in September 2005 at:
  - BARC Training School, Mumbai
  - CAT Training School, Indore
  - NFC-HWB Training School, Hyderabad
  - NPCIL Training Centre, Kalpakkam, Rawatbhata and Tarapur
- DAEF-2005: Two-Year DAE Graduate Fellowship Scheme for Engineering Graduates & MSc (Physics) for joining MTech in specific programs starting in July 2005 at:
  - Indian Institute of Technology-Bombay, Delhi
  - Indian Institute of Technology-Kanpur, Madras and Roorkee

Last date for application depends upon Degree Discipline and will be between January 15 and April 15, 2005.

For Relevant Information and On-Line Application Please Visit: www.hrdbarc.gov.in

GATE-2004 or GATE-2005 is mandatory for BE and optional for BE. GATE is mandatory for MSc applicants without GATE. Applications have to be submitted by first week of December, 2004.

For any queries, contact:
DAE Administrative Office, Bhabha Atomic Research Centre, Trombay, Mumbai 400 085.