

THIRD WORLD ORGANISATION FOR WOMEN IN SCIENCE (TWOWS)

TWOWS is organizing an international conference on the theme: Women's impact on the science and technology in the new millennium, during November 21–25, 2005 at Bangalore hosted by the Jawaharlal Nehru Centre for Advanced Scientific Research.

The details of the Conference and the General Assembly are available on the website <www.twows.com> Interested participants who are desirous of becoming members can contact Dr Mrs. Kaiser Jamil, Vice President, TWOWS, at email kaiserjamil@hotmail.com

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

MANGALORE UNIVERSITY
MANGALAGANGOTRI 574199

Applications are invited for award of a Junior Research Fellowship, in a Board of Research in Nuclear sciences, Department of Atomic Energy, Government of India funded research project entitled “Effect of electron irradiation on the optical and electrical characteristics of Tri Glycine Sulphate (TGS) crystals”.

No. of posts : One

Position : Junior Research Fellow

Qualification : M.Sc. Physics. Research experience in crystal growth is preferred.

Fellowship : Rs 8000/- per month

Duration : 3 years.

Applications on plain paper giving bio data along with testimonials and marks card should reach Dr S M Dharmaprakash, Principal investigator, BRNS Project, Department of Physics, Mangalore University, Mangalagangotri 574 199 within 15 days of the appearance of this advertisement.