

National Academy of Agricultural Science New Delhi 110 012

National Academy of Agricultural Sciences is a prime National Level Organization founded by eminent Agricultural Scientists in India. The Academy's role is to provide a forum for Agricultural Scientists to interact on important and emerging issues of Agricultural Research and Education and providing views of the scientific community as policy inputs to planners, decision makers at various levels.

The Academy intends to appoint a suitable person as its Executive Secretary. Details of the Job profile, experience and qualifications prescribed for the position as well as terms and conditions of appointment are available on the Academy website <http://www.naasindia.org>.

Applications with detailed bio-data along with documentary support are invited by the Academy for the position.

Applications complete in all respects should reach The Chariman, Search-cum-Selection Committee, National Academy of Agricultural Sciences, NASC Complex, Opp. Todapur, Pusa, New Delhi 110 012 on or before 31-05-07.

Karnatak University Department of Botany, Karnatak Science College, Karnatak University Constituent College, Dharwad 580 001 Karnataka (State), India

Position Available

Applications are invited from eligible candidates for the position of one project fellow in a UGC funded project 'Phytodiversity status and its utility in Gadag district' on a monthly consolidated emolument of Rs 6000.

Qualification: M.Sc. in Botany/Applied Botany/Environmental Science/Life Science/Agricultural Science with good academic record.

Duration: Three years

Applications on plain paper with full bio-data, with copies of the relevant certificate to reach Dr K. Kotresha, Principal Investigator, Department of Botany, Karnatak Science College, Dharwad, Karnataka 580 001 on or before 10-5-07. The position is purely temporary on contractual basis and will be co-terminated with the project. No TA/DA will be admissible for attending the interview.