

Dr D.C. Pavate Memorial Fellowships for Higher studies in Cambridge, 2009 Karnatak University, Dharwad

In collaboration with the Sussex College, Cambridge, Karnatak University under the Pavate Foundation offers a visiting fellowship annually for a period of four months for study at the Department of Applied Mathematics and Theoretical Physics/Department of Material Sciences and Metallurgy, University of Cambridge.

Candidates educated or employed for a minimum of 5 years continuously in Karnataka, or employed in Karnataka and below the age of 40 years as on 1 January 2009 and having a Ph.D. or a first class Master's Degree or its equivalent in the area of applied mathematics/theoretical physics/material sciences and metallurgy are eligible to apply. The fellowship will be effective from May 2009. The fellowship will cover economy class return airfare, stipend of £ 3500 and £ 2700 as academic charges. Acceptance of the candidate by the host department is essential.

Requests for applications may be addressed to The Coordinator, Dr D.C. Pavate Foundation, University College of Law, College Road, Dharwad 580 001, Telefax: 0836-2448177, e-mail: coordinator_dcpavatefellowship@yahoo.co.in, patilcs@rediffmail.com by sending a self addressed and stamped envelope of 25 × 10 cm size; or downloaded from www.kud.ernet.in. Applications should reach the Coordinator by 15 January 2009.

Sd/-
Registrar

Bombay Natural History Society requires Deputy Director – Conservation

Job Description: Deputy Director – Conservation will have to develop a dedicated team of people to undertake conservation advocacy at national level. The person is expected to develop conservation policies for the Society which in turn will be used as a core advocacy tool with various governments, corporates and financial institution. He/she will also over see the implementation of conservation related field surveys, rapid appraisal site visits, and campaigns, organize NGO network for conservation interventions, and undertake focused conservation oriented projects. The person is required to raise sufficient financial resources to run the Conservation Department and the conservation agenda of the Society. The person will report to the Director.

Qualifications: Basic post graduate degree in Life Science/Zoology/Botany with 10–15 years of field experience in Conservation biology, nature education and nature conservation with at least 10 years direct experience in conservation activities. Preferably with Ph.D. degree. Excellent communication, negotiation and advocacy skills are necessary. Experience of executing big conservation oriented research projects will be necessary. A good scientific temperament is essential. Previous knowledge of large fund raising is required. He/she should have research publications in national and international journals. Familiarity with various acts and legislation related to conservation will be preferred. Good physical health for rigorous field surveys essential.

Age: Between 35–45 years. Monthly remuneration: Negotiable.

Please apply within fifteen days with detailed CV, marking the envelope with the post applied for, to the Director, Bombay Natural History Society, Hornbill House, S. B. Singh Road, Mumbai 400 001. Tel: 22821811. Please note that applications sent by fax will not be accepted.

Date: 19.11.2008
Place: Mumbai