

Department of Earth Sciences, Manipur University

Canchipur, Imphal 795 003

Applications are invited from the persons of Indian Nationality for five years Research Project 'Multi-parameter Geophysical Observatory for Earthquake Precursory Research in Manipur' funded by Ministry of Earth Sciences (MoES), Government of India, New Delhi.

1. Scientist 'C': 1 Post

Scale of pay: Consolidated Rs 36,000 p.m.

Minimum qualification and experience: M.Sc. in Geology or Geophysics or Earth Sciences with not less than 65% marks or recognized equivalent qualification, 7 years research experience in Geophysics or Ph.D. in relevant discipline with specialization in seismology. Four years post-doctoral research experience in seismology. Publications of high standard in national/international journals and experience in earthquake research.

Desirable qualifications and experience: The candidates who have experience in handling the various earthquake precursory instruments at observatories.

2. Scientist 'B': 1 Post

Scale of pay: Consolidated Rs 34,000 p.m.

Minimum qualification and experience: M.Sc. in Geology or Geophysics or Earth Sciences with not less than 65% marks or recognized equivalent qualification, 3 years research experience in Geophysics.

Desirable qualifications and experience: Ph.D. in relevant discipline with specialization in seismology.

Applicants should have publications of high standard in national/international journals.

Interested candidates should submit their application along with attested copies of marksheets, certificates, degrees, testimonials, experiences, etc., to the following address latest by 30 September 2010.

Prof. Arun Kumar

Principal Investigator

Ministry of Earth Sciences Research Project

Department of Earth Sciences

Manipur University, Canchipur

Imphal 795 003, Manipur (India)

e-mail: arun634@gmail.com