THE CHEVENING ROLLS-ROYCE SCIENCE AND INNOVATION LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME 2011

Do you see yourself as a future Indian leader in science and innovation? If so, the Chevening Rolls-Royce Science and Innovation Leadership Programme presents a remarkable and challenging fifteen week opportunity at the Saïd Business School, University of Oxford to explore innovation and science policy, from an academic, practical and a personal perspective.

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office and Rolls-Royce are offering twelve fully funded scholarships for the first time in India. The ideal candidate should be a mid-career government, science or media professional with leadership potential and experience in any of the following or similar disciplines: research, technology, manufacturing, business development, or business and public administration.

Application open until: 21 November 2010

Programme duration: 21 March – 01 July 2011
