

Invitation for Proposals to Host Workshop on Science Writing

Current Science has been organizing successful Workshops on Science Writing for scientists, researchers and science faculty in India. Most of these Workshops were held in the south of India – seven in Bengaluru and one in Coimbatore. The ninth will be held in Goa.

To make it easy for the many applicants from other parts of India, Current Science invites proposals from research organizations from the North, Central and North East of India, to host such Workshops.

Only 14 persons will be selected in a batch to allow group discussions, interpersonal interactions and hands on training. The Workshop can include up to four participants from the host organization. Since the Workshop will have participants from other organizations, it will provide a platform for networking for future collaborative research.

Interested organizations may access further details from
